

PUBLIC AFFAIRS OFFICE

Fort Benning, GA

(706) 545-3512 / 545-2211

FORT BENNING – Lt. Col. Sean F. Mullen will assume command of the 4th Ranger Training Battalion, Ranger Training Brigade from Lt. Col. James J. Mingus during a change of command ceremony at 8 a.m. June 15 at the Ranger Memorial near Infantry Hall.

Mullen, a graduate of The Citadel, is no stranger to the 4th Ranger Training Battalion, having served there as a company commander from June 1998 to June 2000.

A decorated Soldier, his many awards include parachute badges from Germany, Canada, Colombia and Chile.

He and his wife, Kimberly, are the parents of three daughters.

Mingus has been reassigned to the 75th Ranger Regiment, where he will assume command of the Special Troops Battalion.

For more information, call the Public Affairs Office at (706) 545-3512. After duty hours and on weekends, call (706) 545-2218.

####

Home of the Infantry - Future Home of the Maneuver Center